PURPOSE

We have sensed the need and desire of numbers of Christian workers and laymen for more extensive training in the Bible, practical Christian living, and Christian service. It is our goal to help meet this need for those whose schedule permits them to attend evening classes. Each semester, classes designed to further train and equip Christians in the realm of personal spiritual growth and service in their local churches will be offered.

The Institute encourages the participation and fellowship of like-minded pastors. These area pastors often serve as faculty members and chapel speakers.

APPEARANCE

Students are encouraged to be appropriately dressed in class sessions. Attention should be given to grooming and dress befitting a Christian educational institution.

CHAPEL
